

Speaker 1:

Uh how do you feel about gun control?

Speaker 2:

Uh on the scale they gave, one to ten, I'd say I'm probably a four.

I'm not, totally I'm not one of these people that believes that we should not be able to buy guns but I don't think we should be carrying Uzis either. You know what I mean?

Speaker 1:

Yeah, I know.

Speaker 2:

I mean I don't think machine guns, automatic weapons. I don't believe in things like that but I think some people do. I know that everyone should have the right to have a hand gun in their house if they so choose and, but I think there should be some restrictions when you buy one you know, they should do more background search on you. They should, I think it should be harder to buy one.

Speaker 1:

Right. Yeah there's a lot of crazies out there that can just go in and buy a gun because they don't really ask a lot of questions when you walk into those stores.

Speaker 2:

Yeah. No they don't, they don't ask anything except how old you are. I don't think...that's kind of scary.

Speaker 1:

I'm from California. My mom, the last time I was, like purchased a gun. My, my mom was getting a rifle for my brother that he wanted, like an antique one and...

Speaker 2:

Uh-huh

Speaker 1:

...they, he had to fill out some forms but I guess California might be tougher, I don't know.
